

MORNING

Watch It | Head over to YouTube and search “The Fiery Furnace” and watch this week’s story together as a family! Once you’re done watching the video, answer these questions. (If several people are playing along, see who can answer the fastest!)

1. What was the name of the land that Daniel and his friends were taken to?
2. How tall was King Nebuchadnezzar’s statue?
3. What were the names of the three men who were thrown into the fiery furnace?
4. What is a fiery furnace?
5. Who was the fourth man in the furnace?

LUNCHTIME

Table Time | A conversational game that creates space for the big (and not-so-big) questions you wanna know! There are no right or wrong answers. Just pick a topic or question below and start talking around the lunch table! For added fun, add your own questions.

1. In the story of “The Fiery Furnace,” Daniel picked three friends to be leaders over Babylon while he stayed near the king. Which three friends would you choose to be a leader?
2. King Nebuchadnezzar had musical instruments play when it was time to worship the statue. If you could pick, what would you have everyone in your city do when your favorite song played?
3. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego had to be very brave not to bow down to the statue. When was a time that you were brave?
4. Bible names are really funny sometimes. If you lived during Bible times, what funny name would you have?
5. If you were going to make a statue for art, what statue would you make?

AFTERNOON

Blind Taste Test | Gather together a few foods from around your kitchen, then blindfold a friend or family member and see if they can tell what they are eating without looking at it! Try to get a few different textures involved to throw them off the trail! Maybe get a variety going, like a solid food, a liquid food/drink, something grainy (like salt or sugar), and a gooey food like pudding or peanut butter! Remember not to do anything gross or unkind because it’s your turn next!
