

MORNING

Read It | Read the story of “The Fiery Furnace” (found in Daniel 3) aloud with your family and then answer these questions.

1. Why did Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego not bow to the gold statue?
2. Did the people of Babylon believe in God?
3. Did the people of Babylon believe in God after what God did through Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego?
4. Do you think there were other times that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego were made fun of or picked on for not believing like the other people around them?
5. Why was the king so angry with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego?

LUNCHTIME

Table Time | A conversational game that creates space for the big (and not-so-big) questions you wanna know! There are no right or wrong answers. Just pick a topic or question below and start talking around the lunch table! For added fun, add your own questions.

1. If your teacher made a rule that you had to worship your chair OR you could never go to recess again, what would you do?
2. King Nebuchadnezzar was very angry with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. When was a time that someone was angry with you?
3. If you could fly, where would you go?
4. If you could go back in time and see one Bible story in real life, which one would you visit?
5. What would you do if you were one of the guards who threw Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego into the furnace, but they didn't burn? Would you apologize when they came back out? Would you ask to learn more about God?

AFTERNOON

Story Card Scramble | Cut out the Bible story cards found HERE. Shuffle them up and then put them in order to tell the story of “The Fiery Furnace.” For an extra challenge, try to do it blindfolded with someone telling you which cards go where!
